

Laser Engineering, a division of the WEC Group, a Darwen based engineering company established for over 30 years and now one of the North Wests leading engineering, fabrication and laser cutting companies, is looking to recruit 2 x enthusiastic and self motivated shift supervisors to join the successful laser cutting division :

2 x Laser Machine Shift supervisors

Ideal candidates will have :

- * A minimum of 2 years supervisory experience in a similar capacity
- * Excellent man management skills
- * Operational experience of flat bed and or tube laser cutting machines
- * Experience of operating, Trumpf and Adige machines an advantage
- * Press brake experience an advantage
- * Ability to read basic engineering drawings
- * Basic computer literacy

The role is to :

- Oversee approx 10 off laser machine operators
- Ensure maximum productivity & efficiency at all times
- To set and maintain a high standard of workmanship
- To take ultimate responsibility for the shift including staff, manufacturing, health & safety and final inspection

Hours of work – 38 hour basic week

- rotational 2 shift basis. 6 am – 2 pm & 2 pm – 10 pm
- Weekends when necessary

In return as a growing company we can offer excellent rates of pay, shift allowance, attendance allowance, profitability bonus and long term career prospects